

Demonstrating

What is a demonstrator?

- Role model for students -

What a demonstrator does?

- Assist students
- Guidance in problem solving
- Make students independent learners
- Mark their work

- Coursework Marking
- Tutoring, Mentoring MSc students

Why?

Why we need demonstrators?

- Help academics (financially effective)
- You have studied your discipline recently
- May be more in touch with the students

Why to become demonstrator?

- ✓ Teaching experience
- ✓ UK based work experience
- ✓ Work in a top class lab
- ✓ Salary 16.40 £ /h (above average)

Requirements

Requirements to demonstrate

1. Eligibility (VISA)
2. Register
3. Ability (part-time flexible job)
4. Skills Match (broad range of modules)
5. Training

Training

Training

- 1. OTD 1 &2
Orientation to Teaching & Demonstrating
- 2. EDI
Equality Diversity Inclusion
- 3. H&S
Health & Safety
- 4. ECS specific
4th October, 13:00-14:00, B6 Room 1077

Online

Online

Online

Physical

We need you!

Register :

Or Contact:

David Oakley do@ecs.soton.ac.uk, 59/2217

Michail Pligouroudis mp1r22@soton.ac.uk , 59/2215